Married in Salt Lake City.

M. D. Evans of this city and Miss Beale Preston of Provo, Utah, were united in marriage Tuesday noon at Salt Lake City.

Miss Preston is the charming and accomplished daughter of Mr and Mrs Preston of Provo and has a host of friends and acquaintances in that city.

Mr Evans is the eldest son of Mr and Mrs Mosiah Evans of this city; is a member of the Garland Dramatic Co., Military Band and a foreman at The Utah Sugar Co.

Both are popular young people having many friends in Provo, Lehi, Salt Lake and Garland.

After a pleasant visit with relatives and friends they will return to this city to reside permanently.

We extend congratulations and best wishes.

Labor Day.

Next Monday, Sept. 3rd, is Labor Day and will be generally observed as a holiday in this city. The Base Ball team and quite a number of our citizens will celebrate at Lagoon and witness the base ball contest between the champions of Box Elder and the champions of Davis Counties.

In the afternoon at the race course west of this city the matched race between the Jensen bay and J Y Rich's sorrel, is about the only event of the day's doings in Garland. The race promises to be a good one and besides the purse of $100, a number of side bets amounting to large amounts have been made. Some other horses may be matched for the racing event between this and the above date.

A grand ball will be given at the Amusement Hall in the evening.

Hair-Raising Exhibition.

It has been quite generally rumored around that Garland and Riverside indulged in a game of base ball Saturday last and that the former was made to bite the dust at the feet of the sturdy bunch from the little village which lies on the banks of the Stately Malad. This rumor has not been officially confirmed, however, and it may, therefore, be but a choice morsel penny gossip which is being wafted on the gentle zephyrs which are a characteristic of this beautiful valley. Be the foregoing as it may, this is the way the Bulletin reads: The Famous Garland Nine, the Champions of the World, (or was it Box Elder County, but never mind, we will not split hairs. It makes no material difference) met their Waterloo at the hands of a sturdy corps of warriors from the north, who swooped down upon them Saturday afternoon, Aug. 26th, 1906, while they were asleep and literally sacked the camp. It is understood that the "Champions" tried to recruit their demoralized forces, and to assume a bold front, but to no avail, the warriors had them completely at their mercy. The field was strewn with the wounded and dying, and the sight was a frightful one to behold. The hopeless walls from the grand stand could be heard far and wide, and a sturdy, loyal, few of the fair daughters of Garland volunteered to go to their aid, but the locals were already beating a hasty retreat, and it could be plainly seen that it was too late to save the day. Time and time again in the very thick of the fray, did the "champions" change its battery in the hope of allaying the onslaught, in fact the bunch from the north gave them fifteen minutes between and five minutes during each inning to make the necessary changes before resuming the fray. All hope was abandoned and the "champions" left to their fate. After the smoke had cleared away and the field of battle was clearly exposed to view, the Field Bulletin Board could be seen to read as follows: Riverside 12, Garland 9. A partial list of the survivors and another of the casualties will be given in our next issue.

Under New Management.

Both the Factory Hotel and the Club House have undergone a change of management the past week. The new proprietor of the Factory Hotel is O W Hilde of Provo. Mr Hilde, accompanied by his two nieces, the Misses Strong, came to this city the fore part of the week. The Hotel is being remodeled, papered and calcimined and will be fitted up in excellent shape for the coming campaign. Hot and cold baths are being added. The Misses Strong will have charge of the hotel work. Mrs Wanless will move out and reside in one of the Company's houses.

The Club House goes into the hands of Mr and Mrs Burke of Honeyville, who will manage it for the season.

Letter from Royal C. Lowe.

The following is a synopsis of a letter from Royal C. Lowe, who is performing missionary work in England, to W. P. Eaton, Manager of the Garland Base Ball Team:

Nottingham, Aug. 12th, 1906.

Dear Friend Walter
Arrived in England at last, but I can not complain as to the journey for it has certainly been pleasant. The sea was as smooth and quiet as could be most all the way over, only one or two days that any of the passengers were sick. On my way over I visited Chicago, Niagara, Buffalo, New York City and Boston and think New York a very nice place or that is, some parts of it. Landed at Liverpool on the 10th but am now at my field of labor. The customs of the people here in England are strange and to look at the way some of them dress, an American would say, "they were far behind the times." I do not know whether we could safely say they are behind the times because their dress is some different to the American dress but nevertheless I think I can safely say that I do not care so much for their style as I do that of the Americans. The ladies of England have very nice complections, taking them as a people. One can see some factory girls going along the walks, their clothes are dirty but to look at their faces one will see a very nice complection, that is if it be not too deeply covered by dirt. The buildings are not high like those in Chicago or New York, but the interior of them is very clean and nice. Clothing is much cheaper here than in America and one can secure the best hair cut for 4 pence or about 8 cents of American money. The climate is very damp and now it looks as though it might be raining. The railroads have a very slouchy way, or it appears that way to me. You have your baggage checked for a certain place and you must see that it is taken care of, they give you no checks and you must get your own when it is unloaded. The engines are very small here but seem to do their work. One thing I miss here is the base ball parks like those in the east. When coming up the southern coast of Ireland our ship kept quite close to the coast, affording us a grand opportunity to see the coast and we saw many light houses and large castles. They were built of white substance and looked very nice from a distance. Suppose the boys have been doing fine work since I left for I cannot think of them doing otherwise. Kindly remember me to all old friends for I feel that I have many.

With Best Wishes,
Royal C. Lowe

LEAVES FOR RHODE ISLAND.

John Schaffer, a member of the Garland Base Ball Team, who has been connected with the Single Germ Beet Seed Bureau for some time past, has severed his connection with the bureau and left Wednesday to accept a position as a teacher in the Rhode Island Agricultural College at Kingston, R. I. He leaves a host of friends behind him.

WAS A VERY SICK BOY.

But Cured by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"When my boy was two years old he had a very severe attack of bowel complaint, but by the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy we brought him out all right," says Maggie Hickox, of Midland, Mich. This remedy can be depended upon in the most severe cases. Even cholera infantum is cured by it. Follow the plain printed directions and a cure is certain. For sale by Ritter Bros. Drug Co.

Commercial Club Meeting.

There was a meeting of the Garland Commercial Club held in its rooms on Monday night, Sept. 27th. President Mosiah Evans presiding.

The report of the committee, which was appointed August 18th to wait on the Town Board of Garland to ascertain as to whether or not it would be agreeable to said board, to hold business meetings in the Town Building in consideration of the use of the club furniture, then submitted its report and advised that the proposition met with the approval of said Town Board, subject to change at the pleasure of either organization. The committee on House and Property was instructed to see that the furniture belonging to the club, be taken to the Town Hall.

The report of the committee on delinquent membership was also heard and accepted. After other matters of incidental nature had been disposed of, the meeting was adjourned until Monday evening, Sept. 10th.

Stacey Orchard Co.

Joseph Knudson, manager of the Stacey Orchard Co near Elwood, was in town a few days ago with a load of melons and treated his friends to some of the goods. The company has planted a large area into fruit trees and vegetables and are offering some good articles to the public generally. The orchard, being located much nearer than Brigham, gives the people an opportunity to secure their fruit and vegetables at a close range and at reasonable prices.

Below is a partial list of the acreage planted and shows that they intend to do considerable business this season:

12,000 apple trees, 4 acres of tomatoes, 15 acres of corn, 5 acres melons, 5 acres cantaloupes and other tracts planted to cabbage, potatoes, etc. In the course of a few years this orchard will be the pride of the Bear River Valley, says Mr. Knudson.

We visited the farm Sunday and were well pleased with the surroundings.

From Our Exchanges.

A movement is on foot to organize a commercial club in Malad. The idea is a good one and we hope that the promoters will meet with success. A properly managed commercial club can work wonders for the business interests of the town, and The Enterprise loses no time in endorsing the proposition.—Idaho Enterprise.

A Canton(O.) theological student interested in base ball, wrote a thesis on "Baseball Among the Ancients," from which we glean the following facts:

Abraham made a sacrifice.
The Prodigal Son made a home run.
Cain made a base hit when he killed Abel.

David was a long-distance thrower.
Moses shut out the Egyptians at the Red Sea.

Moses made his first home run when he slew the Egyptian.
The devil was the first coacher, Eve stole first—Adam stole second.

Pain from a Burn Promptly Relieved by Chamberlain's Pain Balm.

A little child of Michael Strauss, of Vernon, Conn., was recently in great pain from a burn on the hand, and as cold applications only increased the inflammation, Mr. Strauss came to Mr. James N. Nichols, a local merchant, for something to stop the pain.
